

Gefa forráðamönnum aðgang að Innu

The screenshot shows the INNA dashboard with a navigation bar at the top containing 'Stundatafla', 'Áfangar', 'Námið', and 'Aðstoð'. A user profile icon in the top right corner is highlighted with a red box and an arrow pointing to a callout box that says 'Smelltu á örina' (Click on the icon). Below the navigation bar, there are several widgets: 'Stundatafla' (timetable), 'Til minnis' (recent items), and a calendar. A red arrow points from the 'Smelltu á örina' box to the user profile icon in the top right corner.

This screenshot shows the user profile menu on the left, with the 'Ég' (Me) option highlighted by a red box and an arrow pointing to a callout box that says 'Smelltu á Ég og því næst á Aðstandendur' (Click on Me and then on Aðstandendur). Below the menu, a list of navigation options is shown, with 'Aðstandendur' highlighted by a red box and an arrow pointing to the same callout box.

The screenshot shows the 'Aðstandendur' (Access) settings page. It has a header with a user icon and the text 'Aðstandendur' and a dropdown with the number '2'. Below the header, there are two columns: 'Nafn' (Name) and 'Aðgangur' (Access). The 'Aðgangur' column has two dropdown menus: 'Nei' (No) and 'Já' (Yes). A red arrow points from a callout box that says 'Smelltu á Nei og breyttu því í Já' (Click on No and change it to Yes) to the 'Já' dropdown menu.
